MEMORANDUM FOR : Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Potential for Civil Disturbance, Washington, D.C., Summer 1968

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. On 15 March 1968, I furnished you with our update assessment of the Black Power movement and attendant potential for civil disturbance. Since that time, we have received two excellent studies from the Federal Bureau of Investigation which provide additional information about extremist elements and the potential for civil disturbance in the District of Columbia during the summer of 1968.
